13 GUEST PRESENTATION – Catlyne Hos, Organisational Psychologist

The Paradox of Leadership – hang on and let go

Catlyne began with some ‘expanding’ exercises so we could open ourselves to the ideas of leadership. She outlined some interesting and challenging thoughts around trends in leadership, ‘from cowboy to cosmonaut’ and how women have many natural leadership skills, as well as the paradoxes and paradigms that are often set up around men/women and good/bad working environments. Definitely food for thought!
